Re: In re Celsius Network LLC, No. 23-CV-02882-JLR (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Rochon:

We submit this joint letter on behalf of Appellant the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”) and the Appellees Community First Partners, LLC, Celsius SPV Investors, LP, Celsius New SPV Investors, LP, and CDP Investissements Inc. to request that the Court stay all deadlines in this appeal applicable to the Committee and Appellees pending approval of a settlement among the parties.

On June 27, 2023, Celsius Network LLC and its debtor-affiliates (the “Debtors”) filed a motion (the “Settlement Motion”) in the Bankruptcy Court seeking approval of a settlement between the Debtors, the Committee, and Appellees. A copy of the settlement motion is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Pursuant to the proposed settlement, the Committee and the Appellees have agreed, upon Bankruptcy Court approval of the settlement, to stipulate to voluntarily dismiss this appeal with prejudice and to mutually release each other of all claims and causes of action related to the Debtors. The Bankruptcy Court will hold a hearing on the Settlement Motion on July 18, 2023.

Pending the Bankruptcy Court’s review of the Settlement Motion, the Committee and the Appellees jointly request that this Court stay all deadlines applicable to the Committee and the Appellees in this appeal, including the Appellees’ deadline to file their merits brief on July 10, 2023.

Finally, we are in receipt of the Court’s order dated June 26, 2023, which directed the parties to file a joint letter by July 7, 2023, to advise the Court of their position regarding the consolidation of this appeal with a recently-filed appeal by customer appellants Immanuel Herrmann and Daniel Frishberg, and to propose a briefing schedule in this appeal. The parties are conferring on their response, including discussing the effect of the settlement on the issues raised by the Court’s order, and will timely file a joint letter by July 7, 2023.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Hon. Jennifer Rochon

JOINT MOTION FOR ENTRY

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors” and, together with their non-debtor affiliates, “Celsius”), the official committee of unsecured creditors (the “Committee,” and together with the Debtors, the “Estate Parties”), Community First Partners, LLC, Celsius SPV Investors, LP, Celsius New SPV Investors, LP (collectively, the “Community First Holders”) and CDP Investissements Inc. the “Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders” and, the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders together with the Debtors and the Committee, the “Initial Parties”) as beneficial holders, or investment advisors or managers of beneficial holders, of series B preferred stock issued by Celsius Network Limited (“CNL” and such shares, the “Series B Preferred Shares”) respectfully state the following in support of this joint motion (this “Motion”):

Preliminary Statement²

1. The extent of stakeholders’ respective entitlements to recover value from CNL’s estate has been one of the most pervasive issues in these chapter 11 cases, resulting in multiple contested matters (collectively, the “Series B Matters”), many of which were set to culminate in a multi-day, fact-intensive trial in July 2023. Facing the prospect of protracted litigation and the associated costs, the Initial Parties reengaged in a final round of settlement negotiations following the completion of written discovery. These negotiations were successful—the Initial Parties reached agreement on a $25 million cash settlement (to be paid from proceeds from the prior sale of the GK8 platform)³ and the release of all claims between the Consenting Series B Preferred Holders, on the one hand, and the Debtors and the Committee, on the other hand. In fully resolving the Series B Matters, the settlement ends all ongoing litigation between the parties regarding substantive consolidation, the allowance of an intercompany claim between CNL and LLC, and an alleged constructive fraudulent transfer. That, in turn, avoids the incurrence of millions of dollars of incremental legal and administrative expenses and provides the Debtors with invaluable near-term certainty as they negotiate with other constituents in pursuit of global consensus and move toward confirmation of a plan of reorganization.

Terms used but not defined in this Motion shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Settlement Agreement or, if not defined in the Settlement Agreement, in the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Celsius Network LLC and Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 2807] (the “June 15 Plan”).

³ See Order (I) Approving the Sale of the GK8 Debtors’ Assets Free and Clear of All Claims, Liens, Rights, Interests, and Encumbrances, (II) Authorizing the GK8 Debtors to Enter into and Perform Their Obligations Under the Asset Purchase Agreement, (III) Authorizing the Assumption and Assignment of Certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, and (IV) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 1686] (the “GK8 Sale Order”).

2. The Settlement is the result of good-faith, hard-fought negotiations between the Debtors, the Committee, and the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders and their respective advisors, and will be offered to all Series B Preferred Holders. If the Court approves the Settlement, all Series B Preferred Holders who join the Settlement Agreement prior to the hearing regarding approval of this Motion will receive a release at such time and will be paid as set forth in the Settlement Agreement, within three (3) business days of entry of the Settlement Approval Order. All other Series B Preferred Holders will receive their Pro Rata Share of a portion of the Settlement Funds, as set forth in the Settlement Agreement, pursuant to the plan of reorganization and will not receive a release under the Settlement Agreement.

3. The Settlement is fair, equitable, and a carefully negotiated consensual solution to several of the Debtors' most important open legal issues. Participation in the Settlement is entirely optional—for those Series B Preferred Holders that “opt-in” to the Settlement, it results in a final resolution of the Settled Claims on mutually beneficial terms. For these reasons, and as further set forth below, the Initial Parties request that the Court approve the Settlement Agreement.

Relief Requested

4. The Initial Parties seek entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Settlement Approval Order”), approving the settlement (the “Settlement”) as embodied in the settlement agreement attached to the Settlement Approval Order as Exhibit 1 (the “Settlement Agreement”), by and among the Initial Parties and any other Series B Preferred

Holders who may join the Settlement Agreement in accordance with its terms prior to the hearing regarding approval of the Motion and Settlement Approval Order.

Jurisdiction and Venue

5. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Court”) has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, entered February 1, 2012. The Initial Parties confirm their consent to the Court entering a final order in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

6. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

7. The statutory bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a) and 363 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”).

Background

I. Prepetition Series B Investment.

8. On or about September 2, 2021 and October 8, 2021, certain Series B Preferred Holders made secured loans (in the form of convertible secured notes) to CNL. On or about December 3, 2021, these Series B Preferred Holders converted their secured notes to preferred equity (the Series B Preferred Shares, all holders of such shares, the “Series B Preferred Holders”).⁴

⁴ See Senior Secured Convertible Promissory Note Purchase Agreement, dated September 2, 2021, by and among Celsius Network Limited, Celsius Network Inc., and the Purchasers party thereto; Amended and Restated Senior Secured Convertible Promissory Note Purchase Agreement, dated October 8, 2021, by and among Celsius Network Limited, Celsius Network Inc., and the Purchasers party thereto (together, the “Note Purchase Agreements,” and each, an “Note Purchase Agreement”); Amended and Restated Subscription and Shareholders’ Agreement, dated December 3, 2021, by and between the Lead Investors, the Participating Investors, the Existing Shareholders, and the Company (the “Subscription & Shareholders’ Agreement”); Lead Investor Agreement, Between December 2021 and January 2022, certain Series B Preferred Holders purchased additional Series B Preferred Shares, for a total of approximately 29,503 shares.

II. Postpetition Events.

9. From the early days of these cases, the Initial Parties have been engaged in litigation regarding the recovery waterfall for CNL's estate. The Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders have taken several steps throughout these cases to protect their asserted interests.

A. Equity Committee Request.

10. On July 19, 22, and 28, 2022, the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders requested, by letter, that the United States Trustee (the "U.S. Trustee") appoint an official equity committee. The U.S. Trustee solicited feedback from the Debtors and the Committee, both of which opposed appointment of an equity committee.

11. On September 22, 2022, the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders filed the Motion of Community First Partners, LLC, Celsius SPV Investors, LP, Celsius New SPV Investors, LP, and CDP Investissements Inc. for Entry of an Order Directing the Appointment of an Official Preferred Equity Committee [Docket No. 880] (the "Preferred Equity Committee Motion"), arguing that an equity committee should be appointed. Following a hearing on October 20, 2022, the Court denied the Preferred Equity Committee Motion without prejudice on October 24, 2022, finding that the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders had not met their burden to demonstrate a substantial likelihood of a recovery to equity holders, and that a cost-benefit analysis did not weigh in favor of appointing an equity committee.⁵

dated December 3, 2021, by and between the Lead Investors, Celsius Network Inc., and the Company; see also Articles of Association of Celsius Network Limited, dated December 3, 2021 (as amended) (the "Articles of Association").

⁵ Memorandum Opinion and Order Denying Motion for the Appointment of an Official Preferred Equity Committee [Docket No. 1168] at 9.

12. On May 17, 2023, the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders renewed their equity committee request via letter to the United States Trustee. On May 26, 2023, the Debtors and the Committee submitted letters opposing the renewed request. This request remains pending (but would be resolved by the Settlement Agreement).

B. Dollarization Litigation.

13. On October 25, 2022, the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders filed the Series B Preferred Holders' Motion Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1009 for Entry of an Order Directing the Debtors to Amend Their Schedules [Docket No. 1183] (the “Dollarization Motion”) asserting that the Debtors’ schedules should be amended to reflect customer claims in United States dollars (“USD”) because “dollarization” of claims would be required for purposes of plan confirmation. Specifically, the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders noted potential difficulties regarding evaluating compliance with section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, including whether claims were impaired, whether holders of similarly situated claims received equal treatment, and whether the proposed plan would meet the “absolute priority rule.” Dollarization Motion § 18. On November 8, 2022, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Objection to Series B Preferred Holders' Motion Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1009 for Entry of an Order Directing the Debtors to Amend Their Schedules [Docket No. 1304], objecting on the basis that amending the schedules would cause unnecessary confusion to account holders and requesting that any order granting the requested relief be limited to amending the schedules and have no further legal consequence. Also on November 8, 2022, the Committee filed The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors' Statement and Reservation of Rights With Regards to the Series B Preferred Holders' Motion Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1009 for Entry of an Order Directing the Debtors to Amend their Schedules [Docket No. 1303] noting that the Committee disagreed with the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders that amending the schedules was necessary and explicitly requesting that any order granting such relief be without prejudice as to whether account holder claims must be calculated in USD as of the Petition Date and how recoveries under the plan of reorganization would be distributed.

14. After negotiations between the Initial Parties, the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders, with the consent of the Debtors, filed a revised proposed Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1009 Directing the Debtors to Amend Their Schedules in Certain Circumstances [Docket No. 1342] (the “Conversion Table Order”), entered by the Court on November 17, 2022, at [Docket No. 1387]. The Conversion Table Order required the Debtors to file a conversion table (the “Conversion Table”) reflecting the Debtors’ view of the rate of conversion for various cryptocurrencies to USD as of the Petition Date.⁶ The Conversion Table Order stated that parties in interest “may” use the Conversion Table to calculate USD amounts of account holders’ claims as of the Petition Date. However, all parties reserved their rights (i) to contest the conversion rates and (ii) with respect to whether (a) account holder claims or distributions are required to be stated in USD or determined by reference to USD, and (b) the USD amount of an account holder’s claim based on their cryptocurrency balance is relevant to future proceedings. Conversion Table Order ¶¶ 5,7. The Settlement Agreement resolves the Parties’ disputes related to the Dollarization Motion, the Conversion Table Order, and the corresponding reservations.

C. Contract Liability Litigation.

15. The Debtors and the Committee have maintained that Series B Preferred Holders would ultimately not be entitled to a recovery in these chapter 11 cases, either because: (a) account holders have both contractual and noncontractual claims against each Celsius entity; (b) an intercompany claim owing from CNL to Celsius Network, LLC (“LLC”) absorbs all value that would otherwise go to equityholders of CNL; (c) the migration of account holder accounts from CNL to LLC constituted a fraudulent transfer subject to avoidance; and/or (d) CNL and LLC should be substantively consolidated. Because the contract liability theory presented the potential for an expeditious and cost-effective resolution of the dispute with the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders, on November 14, 2022, the Debtors filed the Debtors’ Motion Seeking Entry of an Order (I) Setting a Briefing Schedule and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 1338], requesting entry of an order setting a schedule to brief this gating issue.

16. On December 19, 2022, the Court entered the Order (I) Setting a Briefing Schedule and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 1747] (the “Initial Scheduling Order”). The Initial Scheduling Order provided for interested parties to brief the issue of “which Debtors are liable to account holders under the global contract (the “Terms of Use”) between Celsius Network LLC and its account holders” (the “Contract Liability Issue”). Initial Scheduling Order ¶ 1. On February 6, 2023, the Court held an evidentiary hearing regarding the Contract Liability Issue. On February 9, 2023, following discussions held during the hearing, the Court entered an order requiring the Debtors to file information on the docket regarding the amount and nature of any intercompany claim held by LLC against other Debtor entities.⁷ On February 16, 2023, the Debtors filed the Debtors’ Statement with Respect to Intercompany Claims Held by Debtor Celsius Network LLC Against Its Debtor Affiliates [Docket No. 2092] (the “Intercompany Statement”).

17. In the Intercompany Statement, the Debtors and their financial advisors stated that “after many months of analysis,” they “believe[d] that the as-adjusted intercompany claim held by LLC against CNL [was] best reflected at the pro forma amount of $3.5 billion.” Intercompany

Statement ¶ 12. The Intercompany Statement explained that “despite best efforts,” precise reconciliation of the Debtors’ prepetition intercompany claims would require further work, including “forensic analysis.” Id. ¶ 12. The Intercompany Statement further stated that a comprehensive accounting of all intercompany transactions would “be costly and time consuming, if it were even possible given the recordkeeping deficiencies.” Id. Moreover, the Intercompany Statement reported that the Debtors accounted for the transfer of certain assets between CNL and LLC only on a cost basis, rather than recognizing the full value of such transfers. Id. at ¶ 5. In the Intercompany Statement, the Debtors estimated that CNL’s and LLC’s books are missing an aggregate of approximately 7,000 intercompany transfers pertaining to cryptocurrency assets between October 2021 and the Petition Date, excluding the transactions highlighted in the Intercompany Statement. Intercompany Statement ¶ 10.

18. On March 9, 2023, the Court issued the Memorandum Opinion Regarding Which Debtor Entities Have Liability for Customer Claims Under the Terms of Use [Docket No. 2205] (the “Contract Liability Opinion”), finding that only LLC, not CNL or any other Debtor or non-Debtor affiliate, is contractually liable to customers under the Terms of Use. Contract Liability Opinion at 4. On March 17, 2023, the Court entered the Order Regarding Which Debtor Entities Have Liability for Customer Contract Claims Under the Terms of Use [Docket No. 2265] (the “Contract Liability Order”) to implement the Contract Liability Opinion.

19. Nevertheless, the Contract Liability Opinion did not resolve other legal questions, as the Court acknowledged in the opinion:

The net equity value of CNL, to the extent any exists in the global enterprise, arises from Debtor and non-Debtor entities other than LLC whose net equity value will flow up to CNL. Because unsecured Customers recover ahead of equity holders under the absolute priority rule, the Series B Preferred Holders have some chance of recovery if Customers hold claims only against LLC and not against CNL or other Debtor and non-Debtor affiliates.

[FN1: Not addressed in this Opinion are two arguments that could reduce or eliminate entirely any recovery for the Series B Preferred Equity holders, even if they prevail on the terms of use contract interpretation issue, and thereby increase recoveries for LLC's Customers. The Debtors and the Committee contend that CNL is obligated on an intercompany claim to LLC of approximately $3.5 billion. The Committee also contends that substantive consolidation of all assets and liabilities of the global enterprise is appropriate in these cases, unlocking value that would not otherwise be available to Customer claims. Therefore, this decision could have little or no effect on the pool of assets available to satisfy Customer claims. Those will be issues for another day.]

Importantly, the Court finds and concludes that the terms of use do not limit [account holders] (or the Committee) from asserting non-contract claims against CNL, or against other Debtor or non-Debtor affiliates, such as claims for fraud, negligent misrepresentation, or other statutory or common law claims. In short, while the Series B Preferred Holders prevail here, they may very well end up recovering nothing.

D. Class Claim Motion and Appeal.

21. Following entry of the Contract Liability Order, on April 10, 2023, the Committee filed the Motion of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (I) for Authority to File a Class Claim Asserting Non-Contract Claims on Behalf of Account Holders or (II) to Appoint a Third-Party Fiduciary to Assert a Class Claim on Behalf of Account Holders [Docket No. 2399] (the

⁸ The Committee filed a Notice of Appeal [Docket No. 2356] regarding the Contract Liability Opinion and Contract Liability Order (the “Contract Liability Appeal”).

⁹ The proposed Settlement would resolve the issues underlying the Contract Liability Issue dispute as between the Committee and the Series B Preferred Holders. The Committee has confirmed, and the Settlement Agreement provides, that if the Settlement is approved the Committee will stipulate with the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders for voluntary dismissal with prejudice of its pending appeal. The Parties cannot control the pro se creditors' appeal.

“Class Claim Motion”) to solve the “unprecedented collective action problem” of “hundreds of thousands of the” Debtors’ creditors asserting non-contract claims against CNL and certain other non-debtors. Class Claim Motion ¶¶ 5, 7. On April 18, 2023, the Court entered the Order Granting the Motion of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (I) for Authority to File a Class Claim Asserting Non-Contract Claims on Behalf of Account Holders or (II) to Appoint a Third-Party Fiduciary to Assert Non-Contract Claims on Behalf of Account Holders [Docket No. 2496]. The Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders appealed entry of this order, but agreed to dismiss the appeal without prejudice on June 14, 2023, as reflected in the Joint Stipulation of Voluntary Dismissal, which the District Court for the Southern District of New York entered on June 15, 2023 [Docket No. 2817].

22. On May 17, 2023, the Committee filed the Motion of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors to (I) Certify the Class of Account Holders Asserting Non-Contract Claims Against the Debtors, (II) Appoint Thomas DiFiore, Rebecca Gallagher, and Ignat Tuganov as the Class Representatives, and (III) Appoint White & Case LLP as Class Counsel, in Each Case Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7023 [Docket No. 2670] (the “Class Certification Motion”).

E. Intercompany Claim / Substantive Consolidation / Fraudulent Transfer Litigation.

23. On April 4, 2023, the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders filed the Series B Preferred Holders’ Motion for Entry of an Order Establishing Estimation Procedure for the Intercompany Claim Between Celsius Network LLC and Celsius Network Limited in Furtherance of Formulating the Debtors’ Plan of Reorganization [Docket No. 2367] and the Committee filed the Motion of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors for Entry of an Order (I) Establishing Procedures to Estimate the Intercompany Claim That Celsius Network, LLC has Against Celsius Network Limited and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 2369] (together, the “Estimation Motions"). On April 15, 2023, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Limited Objection to (I) the Series B Preferred Holders' Motion for Intercompany Claim Estimation Procedures and (II) the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors' Motion for Intercompany Claim Estimation Procedures [Docket No. 2472] arguing that the related issues of substantive consolidation and constructive fraudulent transfer should be litigated simultaneously alongside the intercompany claim estimation litigation. On April 24, 2023, the Court entered the Order Setting Schedule Regarding (I) Estimation of Certain Intercompany Contract Claims Between Celsius Network LLC and Celsius Network Limited, (II) Substantive Consolidation of Celsius Network LLC and Celsius Network Limited, and (III) Constructive Fraudulent Transfer Claim [Docket No. 2522] (the "Phase II Scheduling Order") establishing a schedule for briefing "(a) the estimation of the Intercompany Claim by LLC against CNL for allowance purpose, (b) the substantive consolidation of LLC and CNL, and (c) a constructive fraudulent transfer claim that may be brought on behalf of LLC's estate against CNL" (the "Confirmation Issues"). Phase II Scheduling Order at 1-2.

24. On May 1, 2023, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion Seeking Entry of an Order (I) Substantively Consolidating the Estates of Celsius Network Limited and Celsius Network LLC and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 2563] (the "Debtors' Substantive Consolidation Motion") asserting that "substantive consolidation of CNL and LLC is appropriate and would provide the fastest, fairest, and most final resolution to allow the Debtors to move forward toward confirmation and emergence." Debtors Substantive Consolidation Motion ¶ 6. The Committee simultaneously filed the Motion by the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors for Entry of an Order Substantively Consolidating the Estates of Celsius Network Limited and Celsius Network LLC, and Joinder in the Debtors' Motion Seeking the Same Relief [Docket No. 2565] (the "Committee's Substantive Consolidation Motion") and together with the Debtors' Substantive Consolidation Motion, the “Substantive Consolidation Motions”). On May 1, 2023, the Committee filed an adversary proceeding against the Debtors alleging a constructive fraudulent transfer between CNL and LLC [Adv. No. 23-01104, Docket No. 1] (the “Fraudulent Transfer Complaint”).

25. On June 6, 2023, the Initial Parties participated in a discovery conference before the Court to resolve discovery disputes in connection with the Confirmation Issues and between June 9, 2023 and June 12, 2023, the Initial Parties participated in eight depositions, with eleven other depositions scheduled. In advance of the deadline to complete fact depositions pursuant to the Phase II Scheduling Order, the Initial Parties reengaged in a final round of negotiations on a potential settlement to resolve the issues that have caused months of litigation since the start of these chapter 11 cases and avoid the significant time and expense of protracted litigation as described below.

26. Following good-faith and arm's-length negotiations, the Initial Parties reached an agreement resolving all of the disputes between the Parties, and the Settlement Agreement was finalized on June 27, 2023—the Settlement Agreement is attached to the Settlement Approval Order as Exhibit 1.

The Settlement

27. The Settlement Agreement resolves all the disputes between the Estate Parties on the one hand, and any Consenting Series B Preferred Holders, on the other hand. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, an aggregate amount of $25,000,000.00 (the total amount, the “Settlement Funds”), funded from the GK8 Proceeds, shall be distributed among the Series B Preferred Holders as set forth in the Settlement Agreement, and the Consenting Series B Preferred Holders will receive releases pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, in each case in full and final settlement of all Settled Claims.

28. The Settlement also, subject to Court approval, seeks to either (a) approve the substantive consolidation of CNL and LLC for purposes of the Debtors’ plan of reorganization and deem the Substantive Consolidation Motions granted (the “Consolidation Approval”), or (b) resolve the Estimation Motions through the allowance of an intercompany claim owing from CNL to LLC in an amount to be agreed between the Debtors and the Committee (the “Intercompany Claim Allowance”).¹⁰ This relief resolves the Substantive Consolidation Motions, the Estimation Motions, and the Fraudulent Transfer Complaint. In the event that the entered Settlement Approval Order includes the Consolidation Approval, the Fraudulent Transfer Complaint shall be voluntarily dismissed and the Estimation Motions shall be deemed withdrawn, both without prejudice. In the event that the entered Settlement Approval Order includes the Intercompany Claim Allowance, the Substantive Consolidation Motions shall be deemed withdrawn and the Fraudulent Transfer Complaint shall be voluntarily dismissed, both without prejudice. If for any reason the Settlement Approval Order is modified such that it does not include either the Consolidation Approval or Intercompany Claim Allowance, (i) none of the Substantive Consolidation Motions, the Estimation Motions, the Fraudulent Transfer Complaint, or the Contract Liability Appeal shall be deemed withdrawn or voluntarily dismissed upon entry of the Settlement Approval Order, (ii) the Parties shall deem the Settlement Agreement amended to provide the relief and conditions otherwise set forth therein, including that the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders will refrain from objecting to the Substantive Consolidation Motions, Estimation Motions, Fraudulent Transfer Complaint, Contract Liability Appeal and Class Certification Motion, and (iii) the Parties shall immediately seek approval of the amended Settlement Agreement under this Motion.

¹⁰ As provided in the Settlement Agreement, if the substantive consolidation of CNL and LLC is not resolved by the Order for any reason, or if the intercompany claim owing from CNL to LLC in connection with the migration is not allowed in whole or in part for any reason, as applicable, the Settlement Agreement shall remain effective.

29. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, the Consenting Series B Preferred Holders shall not directly or indirectly oppose (or support any party who opposes) any relief sought by the Committee or the Debtors in these Chapter 11 Cases that is not inconsistent with the Settlement Agreement and, subject to approval of a disclosure statement, vote for (if applicable) any chapter 11 plan that is not inconsistent with the Settlement Agreement, and shall not directly or indirectly oppose such chapter 11 plan, including any substantive consolidation of the Debtors' Estates, allowance of any other intercompany claims in amounts determined by the Debtors and Committee, and/or allowance of a class claim on behalf of account holders.

30. The key terms of the Settlement are as follows:

SETTLEMENT TERMS¹¹

Settlement Payment and Distribution	In full and final settlement of all Settled Claims, an aggregate amount of $25,000,000.00 cash (the total amount, the “Settlement Funds”) shall be distributed among the Series B Preferred Holders as set forth in the Settlement Agreement and funded from the cash proceeds referenced in paragraph 9 (the “GK8 Proceeds”) of the GK8 Sale Order. The Settlement Approval Order shall provide that the Debtors may use the remaining GK8 Proceeds (i.e., all GK8 Proceeds other than the Settlement Funds) in the ordinary course of their business and pursuant to the Final Order (I) Authorizing the GK8 Debtors to (A) Continue to Operate the GK8 Cash Management System, (B) Honor Certain Prepetition Obligation Related Thereto, (C) Maintain Existing GK8 Business Forms, and (D) Continue to Perform GK8 Intercompany Transactions, (II) Granting Superpriority Administrative Expense Status to Postpetition GK8 Intercompany Balances, and (III) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 2115]. The Parties agree that (a) the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders shall receive, in the aggregate, $24,000,000.00 of the Settlement Funds on account of the fees and expenses incurred by the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders in connection with the Series B Matters and the Chapter 11 Cases to be distributed within three (3) business days of the entry of the Settlement Approval Order in accordance with the wire instructions provided by the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders to the Debtors, and (b) each Series B Preferred Holder shall receive its Pro Rata Share of $1,000,000.00 of the Settlement Funds distributed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (x) in the case of any Series B Preferred Holder who is a Consenting Series B Preferred Holder as of the date of entry of the Settlement Approval Order, within three (3) business days of the entry of the Settlement Approval Order in accordance with the wire instructions provided by such Consenting Series B Preferred Holder to the Debtors; and (y) in the case of all other Series B Preferred Holders, on the effective date of the plan of reorganization (as revised in accordance with the Settlement Agreement) pursuant to and in accordance therewith, in each case in full and final settlement and release of such Consenting Series B Preferred Holder’s Series B Preferred Shares and any Claims arising out of or related thereto.
Revised Plan	As soon as reasonably practicable after entry of the Settlement Approval Order, the Debtors shall file a revised plan of reorganization reflecting the terms of the Settlement Agreement. For the avoidance of any doubt, such revised plan shall provide that each Series B Preferred Holder who did not receive its Pro Rata Share of the Settlement Funds in accordance with Section 4(b)(x) of the

	Settlement Agreement shall receive its Pro Rata Share of the Settlement Funds pursuant to the plan, subject to any unclaimed distribution being redistributed in accordance with Section 4 of the Settlement Agreement. The plan, as revised in accordance with Section 5 of the Settlement Agreement and as may be further amended, supplemented, revised, or otherwise modified, shall provide that (i) the Initial Series B Preferred Holders, the former directors and board observers of the Debtors designated by the Initial Series B Preferred Holders, and the other Consenting Series B Preferred Holders (solely in their capacity as Consenting Series B Preferred Holders) and their Related Parties are “Released Parties” under the plan and shall not need to be specifically enumerated notwithstanding subpart (d) of the Excluded Parties definition and (ii) no Initial Series B Preferred Holders, former directors and board observers of the Debtors designated by the Initial Series B Preferred Holders, or other Consenting Series B Preferred Holders (solely in their capacity as Consenting Series B Preferred Holders), nor any of their Related Parties are “Excluded Parties” under the plan of reorganization unless already expressly named as Excluded Parties in the June 15 Plan or subsequently agreed between the Estate Parties and the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders.
Restructuring Support	Upon the execution of the Settlement Agreement, the Consenting Series B Preferred Holders shall (i) not directly or indirectly oppose (or support any party who opposes) any relief sought by the Committee or the Debtors in these Chapter 11 Cases that is not inconsistent with the Settlement Agreement and (ii) subject to approval of a disclosure statement, vote for (if applicable) any plan of reorganization that is not inconsistent with the Settlement Agreement, and shall not directly or indirectly oppose such plan (or support any party who opposes such plan), including, for the avoidance of any doubt, any substantive consolidation of the Debtors’ Estates, allowance of intercompany claims in amounts determined by the Debtors and Committee, and/or allowance of the Class Claim on behalf of account holders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the filing of any plan of reorganization that is inconsistent with the Settlement Agreement, and upon written notice from counsel to the Initial Series B Consenting Preferred Holders to counsel to the Estate Parties of such filing, any and all ballots tendered by the Consenting Series B Preferred Holders shall be deemed, for all purposes, to be null and void from the first instance and shall not be considered or otherwise used in any manner in connection with such plan (without the need to seek an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or consent from or any other Party allowing such change); provided that the Estate Parties may request an emergency hearing upon receipt of any such notice from counsel to the Initial Series B Consenting Preferred Holders and such notice shall not be effective until completion of such emergency hearing in the event that the Estate Parties reasonably dispute the propriety of such a notice; provided further that if such written notice is provided at a time when permission of the Bankruptcy Court shall be required for a Consenting Series B Preferred Holder to change or withdraw (or cause to change or withdraw) its vote to accept the plan of reorganization, the Estate Parties shall consent to any attempt by such Consenting Series B Preferred Holder to change or withdraw (or cause to change or withdraw) such vote at such time.
Release Provisions	Effective as of the entry of the Settlement Approval Order, in exchange for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is confirmed, to the fullest

	extent allowed by applicable law, the Estate Parties on one hand, and the Initial Series B Preferred Holders, the former directors and board observers of the Debtors designated by the Initial Series B Preferred Holders, and the other Consenting Series B Preferred Holders (solely in their capacity as Consenting Series B Preferred Holders) on the other, each on behalf of themselves, their successors, assigns, and each of their Related Parties (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Litigation Administrator contemplated under the plan and the Post-Effective Date Debtors), shall be deemed to have conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever mutually released and discharged the Initial Series B Preferred Holders, the former directors and board observers of the Debtors designated by the Initial Series B Preferred Holders, the other Consenting Series B Preferred Holders (solely in their capacity as Consenting Series B Preferred Holders), and each of their Related Parties on one hand, and the Estate Parties and their Related Parties on the other, from any and all claims, interests, obligations, rights, suits, damages, causes of action, remedies, and liabilities, whatsoever.
Substantive Consolidation and Intercompany Migration Claim	Prior to the start of the hearing before the Bankruptcy Court regarding approval of the Settlement Agreement, the Debtors, in consultation with the Committee, shall elect whether to include in the proposed Settlement Approval Order either the Consolidation Approval or Intercompany Claim Allowance. In the event that the entered Settlement Approval Order includes the Consolidation Approval, the Fraudulent Transfer Complaint shall be voluntarily dismissed and the Estimation Motions shall be deemed withdrawn, both without prejudice. In the event that the entered Settlement Approval Order includes the Intercompany Claim Allowance, the Substantive Consolidation Motions shall be deemed withdrawn and the Fraudulent Transfer Complaint shall be voluntarily dismissed, both without prejudice. If for any reason the Settlement Approval Order is modified such that it does not include either the Consolidation Approval or Intercompany Claim Allowance, (i) none of the Substantive Consolidation Motions, the Estimation Motions, the Fraudulent Transfer Complaint, or the Contract Liability Appeal shall be deemed withdrawn or voluntarily dismissed upon entry of the Settlement Approval Order, (ii) the Parties shall deem the Settlement Agreement amended to provide the relief and conditions otherwise set forth therein, including that the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders will refrain from objecting to the Substantive Consolidation Motions, Estimation Motions, Fraudulent Transfer Complaint, Contract Liability Appeal and Class Certification Motion, and (iii) the Parties shall immediately seek approval of the amended Settlement Agreement under the Settlement Motion.

31. The Debtors have determined, in the exercise of their business judgment, that entry into the Settlement Agreement is in the best interest of their estates and all stakeholders as it avoids the delay and costs of potentially protracted litigation related to the Settled Claims. The Settlement Agreement was negotiated at arm's length and in good faith among the Debtors, the Committee, and the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders and their respective advisors, and provides clarity and certainty to the Debtors' stakeholders with respect to the portion of the Debtors' estates available for creditor recoveries in these chapter 11 cases.

Basis for Relief

32. The Settlement represents a favorable resolution of the Settled Claims and reflects the Debtors' sound business judgment. Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a) provides that, "after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019(a). A settlement under Bankruptcy Rule 9019 need not result in the best possible outcome for the debtors, but must not "fall below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness." In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc., 134 B.R. 493, 595 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991). In determining the range of reasonableness, the bankruptcy court need not decide issues of law and fact raised by the settlement. See Cosoff v. Rodman (In re W.T. Grant Co.), 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir. 1983) (citing Newman v. Stein, 464 F.2d 689, 693 (2d Cir. 1972)). In other words, the court does not need to conduct a "mini-trial" of the underlying facts and merits; it needs only to evaluate those facts that are necessary to allow it to assess the settlement and to make an independent judgment about the settlement. See In re Charter Commc'ns, 419 B.R. 221, 252 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009) ("The standard does not require that the settlement be the best the debtor could have obtained nor does it require the court to conduct a mini-trial of the questions of law and fact.").

33. Rather, the court must be "apprised of those facts that are necessary to enable it to evaluate the settlement and to make a considered and independent judgment." In re Dewey & LeBoeuf LLP, 478 B.R. 627, 640-41 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2012) (Glenn, J.). In conducting this assessment, "a court may rely on the opinions of the debtor, the parties to the settlement, and professionals in evaluating the necessary facts, and it should factor in the debtor's exercise of its business judgment in recommending the settlement." Id. at 641.

34. Ultimately, the decision to accept or reject a compromise or settlement is within the sound discretion of the bankruptcy court. Nellis v. Shugrue, 165 B.R. 115, 123 (S.D.N.Y. 1994) (“Although a judge must consider the fairness of the settlement to the estate and its creditors, the judge is not required to assess the minutia of each and every claim.”); Drexel Burnham, 134 B.R. at 505; see also Abeles v. Infotechnology (In re Infotechnology), 1995 U.S. App. LEXIS 39883, at *4–5 (2d Cir. Nov. 9, 1995) (noting that in determining whether to approve a debtor’s motion to settle a controversy, a court does not substitute its judgment for that of the debtor).

35. A court should exercise its discretion in favor of a settlement wherever possible, as settlements are generally favored in bankruptcy. In re Adelphia Commc’ns Corp., 368 B.R. 140, 226 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2007) (“As a general matter, settlements or compromises are favored in bankruptcy and, in fact, encouraged.”); see also In re Hibbard Brown & Co., 217 B.R. 41, 46 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) (“The decision to grant or deny a settlement or compromise lies squarely within the discretion of the bankruptcy court [and such] discretion should be exercised in light of the general public policy favoring settlements.”) (citing Nellis v. Shugrue 165 B.R. at 121); In re Michael Milken & Assocs. Secs. Litig., 150 F.R.D. 46, 53 (S.D.N.Y. 1993) (noting the paramount public policy for settlements)).¹² Notably, “[s]ettlements and compromises are favored in bankruptcy as they minimize costly litigation and further parties’ interests in expediting the administration of the bankruptcy estate.” In re LATAM Airlines Group S.A., 2022 WL 272167, at *12 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Jan. 28, 2022) (quoting In re MF Global Inc., 2012 WL 3242533, at *5 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Aug. 10, 2012) (Glenn, J.)).

¹² Further, under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court “may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of [the Bankruptcy Code].” Authorizing the Debtors to proceed with the Settlement falls squarely within the spirit of Bankruptcy Rule 9019 as well as the Bankruptcy Code’s predilection for compromise. Thus, to the extent necessary, section 105(a) relief is appropriate in this instance and would best harmonize the settlement processes contemplated by the Bankruptcy Code.

36. In determining whether to approve a settlement as fair and equitable and in the best interests of the debtor's estate under Bankruptcy Rule 9019, courts in the Second Circuit consider what is often referred to as the "Iridium" factors: (a) the balance between the litigation's possibility of success and the settlement's future benefits; (b) the likelihood of complex and protracted litigation, with its attendant expense, inconveniences, and delay; (c) the paramount interest of the creditors; (d) whether other parties in interest affirmatively support the proposed settlement; (e) the nature and breadth of releases to be obtained by officers and directors; (f) whether the competency and experience of counsel support the settlement; and (g) the extent to which the settlement is the product of arm's-length bargaining. See In re Iridium Operating LLC, 478 F.3d 452, 462 (2d Cir. 2007); see also Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc., 960 F.2d 285, 292 (2d Cir. 1992); In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 156 B.R. 414, 428 (S.D.N.Y. 1993), aff'd, 17 F.3d 600 (2d Cir. 1994).

37. The Debtors' entry into the Settlement is an exercise of their business judgment and represents a fair and equitable compromise between the Parties, falls well within the range of reasonableness, and satisfies the Iridium factors. More specifically, with respect to the first and second Iridium factors, the Initial Parties have already spent nearly a year working to resolve the Settled Claims without reaching a resolution. The remaining litigation schedule would require the dedication of significant resources and incurrence of millions of dollars in legal and administrative expenses because of the compressed timeline and number of complicated and fact intensive issues to be tried at the July trial setting. Time is of the essence in these chapter 11 cases, and it is crucial that the Debtors avoid the costs and delays associated with litigation if possible. See Hr'g Tr. June 6, 2023 ("Th[e settled] matter is and needs to be on a very expedited schedule. . . . This matter has to be fully ready for hearing on the schedule in which it's already set." (Glenn, C.J.)).

The Settlement eliminates all future litigation between the Estate Parties and the Consenting Series B Preferred Holders, saving both significant time and expense.

38. With respect to the third Iridium factor, entry into the Settlement Agreement benefits each of the Debtors' stakeholders by building consensus (providing the Debtors with certainty) and minimizing costs. Through a combination of litigated opinions and negotiated settlements, the Debtors have been steadily building consensus and gaining momentum for several months:

- on December 20, 2022, the Court entered an order resolving the issue of ownership of the cryptocurrency in "pure" custody accounts;¹³
- on January 4, 2023, the Court entered the "Earn opinion," narrowing the issues regarding ownership of the cryptocurrency associated with the Earn Program;¹⁴
- on March 21, 2023, the Court entered an order approving a settlement and related election materials to resolve the issues of ownership and preferences regarding the cryptocurrency in custody accounts that are not "pure" custody accounts;¹⁵ and
- on April 20, 2023, the Court entered an order approving a settlement regarding "withhold" balances.¹⁶

39. This progress has been a welcome reprieve from the early months of these chapter 11 cases, when the Debtors found themselves caught in a litigation quagmire where every issue raised seemed to implicate another, resulting in a gridlock to all stakeholders' frustration. The litigation with the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders (and the complications the associated uncertainty brings to the Debtors' chapter 11 plan process) is one of the largest outstanding challenges standing between the Debtors and confirmation. Resolving this key issue at a reasonable cost is invaluable to the Debtors' estates.

40. With respect to the fourth Iridium factor, the Parties are the primary constituents (or constituent representatives) in these cases.

41. With respect to the fifth Iridium factor, the releases granted by the Settlement Agreement are consensual, mutual, and substantially mirror the releases contained in the plan, which are standard in this context. Specifically, the releases granted by the Debtors in the Settlement Agreement are a necessary component of the Settlement and are appropriate under the circumstances.

42. Finally, with respect to the sixth and seventh Iridium factors, the Settlement Agreement is the product of arm's-length bargaining between the Initial Parties represented by independent, competent counsel. Any Series B Preferred Holders that do not opt in to the settlement will only be bound to the Settlement pursuant to the plan of reorganization (and subject to the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code).

43. Finally, the Initial Parties engaged in fair and thorough arm's-length negotiations, culminating in the proposed Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Agreement was negotiated following months of protracted litigation by and among three independent, sophisticated parties. The Initial Parties exchanged multiple rounds of terms before agreeing to the terms set forth in the Settlement Agreement with meaningful concessions made by all Parties.

44. Thus, the terms of the Settlement satisfy the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and the Initial Parties request that the Court approve the Settlement and authorize each of the Parties to perform thereunder.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and 6004(h)

45. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court enter an order providing that notice of the relief requested herein satisfies Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and that the Debtors have established cause to exclude such relief from the 14-day stay period under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

Reservation of Rights

46. Except as explicitly set forth in this Motion and the Settlement Agreement (once approved by the Court and implemented in accordance with its terms), nothing contained in this Motion or any actions taken pursuant to any order granting the relief requested by this Motion is intended or should be construed as (a) an admission as to the validity of any particular claim against the Debtors, Committee, or Initial Series B Preferred Holders, (b) a waiver of the Initial Parties' rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds, (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim, (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in this Motion or any order granting the relief requested by this Motion, (e) a request or authorization to assume any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, (f) a waiver or limitation of the Initial Parties' rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law, or (g) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) satisfied pursuant to this Motion are valid, and the Debtors expressly reserve their rights to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens. If the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Initial Parties' rights to subsequently dispute such claim

Motion Practice

47. This Motion includes citations to the applicable rules and statutory authorities upon which the relief requested herein is predicated and a discussion of their application to this Motion. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that this Motion satisfies Local Rule 9013-1(a).

Notice

48. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) counsel to the Committee; (c) the holders of the 50 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (d) the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York; (e) the Internal Revenue Service; (f) the offices of the attorneys general in the states in which the Debtors operate; (g) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (h) all holders of Series B Preferred Shares; and (i) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

AGREEMENT

1. For Settlement Purposes Only. This Settlement Agreement is for settlement purposes only. Except as explicitly set forth in this Settlement Agreement, the fact of this Settlement Agreement or any provision herein, the negotiations or proceedings related hereto, and any actions taken hereunder shall not constitute or be construed as (a) any admission of the validity of any claim or any fact alleged by any of the Parties, (b) any admission of any wrongdoing, fault, violation of law, breach of contract, or liability of any kind on the part of any of the Parties, (c) any admission as to any claim or allegation made in any demand of, action against, or proceeding against any of the Parties, and/or (d) a waiver of any applicable defense by any of the Parties. This Settlement Agreement shall not be offered or admissible as evidence against any Party in any action or proceeding in any forum for any purpose whatsoever, except as evidence of its existence or terms or in any action or proceeding brought to enforce its terms.

2. Approval. This Settlement Agreement shall be effective on the date the Bankruptcy Court enters an order approving the motion seeking approval of this Settlement Agreement (the “Settlement Motion”), which order shall be substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A or as provided herein and otherwise in form and substance reasonably acceptable to each of the Parties (the “Settlement Approval Order”). Although the Parties shall sign this Settlement Agreement prior to the entry of the Settlement Approval Order, this Settlement Agreement shall not be effective or binding on the Parties if the Settlement Approval Order is not entered by the Bankruptcy Court.

3. Settlement Payment. In full and final settlement of all Settled Claims, an aggregate amount of $25,000,000.00 cash (the total amount, the “Settlement Funds”) shall be distributed among the Series B Preferred Holders as set forth in this Settlement Agreement and funded from the cash proceeds referenced in paragraph 9 (the “GK8 Proceeds”) of the Order (I) Approving the Sale of the GK8 Debtors’ Assets Free and Clear of All Claims, Liens, Rights, Interests and Encumbrances, (II) Authorizing the GK8 Debtors to Enter into and Perform Their Obligations Under the Asset Purchase Agreement, (III) Authorizing the Assumption and Assignment of Certain Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, and (IV) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 1686] (the “GK8 Sale Order”). The Settlement Approval Order shall provide that the Debtors may use the remaining GK8 Proceeds (i.e., all GK8 Proceeds other than the Settlement Funds) in the ordinary course of their business and pursuant to the Final Order (I) Authorizing the GK8 Debtors to (A) Continue to Operate the GK8 Cash Management System, (B) Honor Certain Prepetition Obligation Related Thereto, (C) Maintain Existing GK8 Business Forms, and (D) Continue to Perform GK8 Intercompany Transactions, (II) Granting Superpriority Administrative Expense Status to Postpetition GK8 Intercompany Balances, and (III) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 2115].

4. Settlement Payment Distributions. The Parties agree that (a) the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders shall receive, in the aggregate, $24,000,000.00 of the Settlement Funds on account of the fees and expenses incurred by the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders in connection with the Series B Matters and the Chapter 11 Cases to be distributed within three (3) business days of the entry of the Settlement Approval Order in accordance with the wire instructions provided by the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders to the Debtors, and (b) each Series B Preferred Holder shall receive its Pro Rata Share of $1,000,000.00 of the Settlement Funds distributed (x) in the case of any Series B Preferred Holder who is a Consenting Series B Preferred Holder as of the date of entry of the Settlement Approval Order, within three (3) business days of the entry of the Settlement Approval Order in accordance with the wire instructions provided by such Consenting Series B Preferred Holder to the Debtors, and (y) in the case of all other Series B Preferred Holders, on the effective date of the Plan (as revised in accordance with Section 5 below) pursuant to and in accordance therewith, in each case in full and final settlement and release of such Consenting Series B Preferred Holder's Series B Preferred Shares and any Claims arising out of or related thereto; provided, for the avoidance of any doubt, that such Series B Preferred Shares shall remain outstanding until the occurrence of the Effective Date, upon which such Series B Preferred Shares shall be deemed discharged and extinguished in accordance with the terms of the Plan. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Settlement Funds to be distributed in accordance with clauses (a) and (b)(x) hereof shall be immediately due and payable to the applicable Consenting Series B Preferred Holders upon entry of the Settlement Approval Order. For the avoidance of doubt, all distributions of Settlement Funds to Series B Preferred Holders in accordance with this Settlement Agreement shall be irrevocable and not subject to clawback, absent a material breach of this Settlement Agreement by the particular Series B Preferred Holder from whom clawback is sought. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan if, for any reason, any Settlement Funds have not actually been distributed to Series B Preferred Holders in accordance with this Section 4 as of the date that is 3 months after the Effective Date, each Consenting Series B Preferred Holder shall, upon request, receive its Consenting Pro Rata Share of such undistributed Settlement Funds within three (3) business days of such date, in accordance with the wire instructions provided by the Consenting Series B Preferred Holders to the Debtors.

5. Revised Plan. As soon as reasonably practicable after entry of the Settlement Approval Order, the Debtors shall file a revised Plan reflecting the terms of this Settlement Agreement. For the avoidance of any doubt, such revised Plan shall provide that each Series B Preferred Holder who did not receive its Pro Rata Share of the Settlement Funds in accordance with Section 4(b)(x) hereof shall receive its Pro Rata Share of the Settlement Funds pursuant to the Plan, subject to any unclaimed distribution being redistributed in accordance with Section 4 hereof. The Plan, as revised in accordance with this Section 5 and as may be further amended, supplemented, revised, or otherwise modified, shall provide that (i) the Initial Series B Preferred Holders, the former directors and board observers of the Debtors designated by the Initial Series B Preferred Holders, and the other Consenting Series B Preferred Holders (solely in their capacity as Consenting Series B Preferred Holders) and their Related Parties are "Released Parties" under the Plan and shall not need to be specifically enumerated notwithstanding subpart (d) of the Excluded Parties definition and (ii) no Initial Series B Preferred Holders, former directors and board observers of the Debtors designated by the Initial Series B Preferred Holders, or other Consenting Series B Preferred Holders (solely in their capacity as Consenting Series B Preferred Holders), nor any of their Related Parties are "Excluded Parties" under the Plan unless already expressly named as Excluded Parties in the June 15 Plan or subsequently agreed between the Estate Parties and the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders.

6. Class Certification. Immediately upon the filing of the Settlement Motion, and in no event later than June 28, 2023, the Initial Parties shall jointly request from the Bankruptcy Court a temporary stay or extension of the Class Certification Scheduling Order until the entry of the Settlement Approval Order. Upon execution of this Settlement Agreement, the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders shall refrain from objecting to the Class Certification Motion, any proposed schedule for the certification of the Class Claim submitted to the Bankruptcy Court by the Estate Parties, or the allowance of the Class Claim in the amount asserted therein solely for the purposes of claims administration; provided that, if the Settlement Approval Order is not entered, (i) the foregoing shall be of no force and effect and (ii) the Initial Parties shall jointly propose to the Bankruptcy Court a new schedule for litigation concerning the Class Certification Motion.

7. CNL-LLC Substantive Consolidation and Intercompany Migration Claim. The Parties agree that the Settlement Motion shall seek to implement the substance of the settled disputes between the Parties concerning the allowance of the Intercompany Claim, the Substantive Consolidation Motions, and the Fraudulent Transfer Complaint, by either (a) deeming the Substantive Consolidation Motions granted and approving the substantive consolidation of CNL and LLC for Plan purposes as described therein (the “Consolidation Approval”) or (b) resolving the Estimation Motions through the allowance of an Intercompany Claim owing from CNL to LLC in an amount to be agreed between the Estate Parties (the “Intercompany Claim Allowance”). Prior to the start of the hearing before the Bankruptcy Court regarding approval of this Settlement Agreement, the Debtors, in consultation with the Committee, shall elect whether to include in the proposed Settlement Approval Order either the Consolidation Approval or Intercompany Claim Allowance. In the event that the entered Settlement Approval Order includes the Consolidation Approval, the Fraudulent Transfer Complaint shall be voluntarily dismissed and the Estimation Motions shall be deemed withdrawn, both without prejudice. In the event that the entered Settlement Approval Order includes the Intercompany Claim Allowance, the Substantive Consolidation Motions shall be deemed withdrawn and the Fraudulent Transfer Complaint shall be voluntarily dismissed, both without prejudice. If for any reason the Settlement Approval Order is modified such that it does not include either the Consolidation Approval or Intercompany Claim Allowance, (i) none of the Substantive Consolidation Motions, the Estimation Motions, the Fraudulent Transfer Complaint, or the Contract Liability Appeal shall be deemed withdrawn or voluntarily dismissed upon entry of the Settlement Approval Order, (ii) the Parties shall deem this Settlement Agreement amended to provide the relief and conditions otherwise set forth herein, including that the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders will refrain from objecting to the Substantive Consolidation Motions, Estimation Motions, Fraudulent Transfer Complaint, Contract Liability Appeal and Class Certification Motion, and (iii) the Parties shall immediately seek approval of the amended Settlement Agreement under the Settlement Motion. Immediately upon the filing of the Settlement Motion, and in no event later than June 28, 2023, the Initial Parties shall jointly request from the Bankruptcy Court a temporary stay or extension of the Phase II Scheduling Order with respect to the Initial Series B Holders and the Estate Parties until the entry of the Settlement Approval Order. If the Settlement Approval Order (including as modified pursuant to this Section 7) is not entered, the Initial Parties will jointly propose to the Bankruptcy Court a new schedule for litigation concerning the Confirmation Issues solely with respect to the Consenting Series B Holders and the Estate Parties.

8. Contract Liability Appeal. Except as set forth in Section 7, above, within two (2) days after entry of the Settlement Approval Order, the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders and the Committee shall stipulate for voluntary dismissal with prejudice of the Contract Liability Appeal. Immediately upon the filing of the Settlement Motion, and in no event later than June 27, 2023, the Initial Parties shall jointly request from the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the “District Court”) a temporary stay or extension of the deadlines applicable to any of the Initial Parties in the Contract Liability Appeal proceedings until the entry of the Settlement Approval Order. If the Settlement Approval Order is not entered, the Initial Parties will jointly propose to the District Court a new schedule for litigation concerning the Contract Liability Appeal.

9. Restructuring Support. Upon the execution of this Settlement Agreement, the Consenting Series B Preferred Holders shall (i) not directly or indirectly oppose (or support any party who opposes) any relief sought by the Committee or the Debtors in these Chapter 11 Cases that is not inconsistent with this Settlement Agreement and (ii) subject to approval of a disclosure statement, vote for (if applicable) any Plan that is not inconsistent with this Settlement Agreement, and shall not directly or indirectly oppose such Plan (or support any party who opposes such Plan), including, for the avoidance of any doubt, any substantive consolidation of the Debtors’ Estates, allowance of intercompany claims in amounts determined by the Debtors and Committee, and/or allowance of the Class Claim on behalf of account holders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the filing of any Plan that is inconsistent with this Settlement Agreement, and upon written notice from counsel to the Initial Series B Consenting Preferred Holders to counsel to the Estate Parties of such filing, any and all ballots tendered by the Consenting Series B Preferred Holders shall be deemed, for all purposes, to be null and void from the first instance and shall not be considered or otherwise used in any manner in connection with the Plan (without the need to seek an order of a court of competent jurisdiction or consent from or any other Party allowing such change); provided that the Estate Parties may request an emergency hearing upon receipt of any such notice from counsel to the Initial Series B Consenting Preferred Holders and such notice shall not be effective until completion of such emergency hearing in the event that the Estate Parties reasonably dispute the propriety of such a notice; provided further that if such written notice is provided at a time when permission of the Bankruptcy Court shall be required for a Consenting Series B Preferred Holder to change or withdraw (or cause to change or withdraw) its vote to accept the Plan, the Estate Parties shall consent to any attempt by such Consenting Series B Preferred Holder to change or withdraw (or cause to change or withdraw) such vote at such time.

10. Offer to All Holders of Series B Preferred Shares. The settlement set forth in this Settlement Agreement will be offered to all Series B Preferred Holders. Series B Preferred Holders have the right to opt in to this Settlement Agreement by returning a signature page to this Settlement Agreement to counsel to the Debtors, the Committee, and the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders before the hearing regarding approval of the Settlement Motion and this Settlement Agreement. Upon returning a signature page, such Series B Preferred Holder shall be a Consenting Series B Preferred Holder under this Settlement Agreement (but not, for the avoidance of any doubt, an Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holder).

11. Release. Effective as of the entry of the Settlement Approval Order, in exchange for good and valuable consideration, the adequacy of which is hereby confirmed, to the fullest extent allowed by applicable law, the Estate Parties on one hand, and the Initial Series B Preferred Holders, the former directors and board observers of the Debtors designated by the Initial Series B Preferred Holders, and the other Consenting Series B Preferred Holders (solely in their capacity as Consenting Series B Preferred Holders) on the other, each on behalf of themselves, their successors, assigns, and each of their Related Parties (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Litigation Administrator contemplated under the Plan and the Post-Effective Date Debtors), shall be deemed to have conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever mutually released and discharged the Initial Series B Preferred Holders, the former directors and board observers of the Debtors designated by the Initial Series B Preferred Holders, the other Consenting Series B Preferred Holders (solely in their capacity as Consenting Series B Preferred Holders), and each of their Related Parties on one hand, and the Estate Parties and their Related Parties on the other, from any and all claims, interests, obligations, rights, suits, damages, causes of action, remedies, and liabilities, whatsoever, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, fixed or contingent, accrued or unaccrued, existing or hereafter arising, in law (or any applicable rule, statute, regulation, treaty, right, duty, or requirement), equity, contract, tort, or otherwise, including any derivative claims, asserted or assertable on behalf of any of the Debtors, their Estates, or the Post-Effective Date Debtors, that such Entity would have been legally entitled to assert in their own right or otherwise, based on or relating to, or in any manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Debtors (including the management, ownership or operation thereof), the purchase, sale, amendment, or rescission of any Security of the Debtors, the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest (including, but not limited to, the Series B Preferred Shares), the business or contractual arrangements between any Debtor and any Party, the assertion or enforcement of rights and remedies against the Debtors, the Debtors' in- or out-of-court restructuring efforts, intercompany transactions, the Pause, the Chapter 11 Cases and any related adversary proceedings, the formulation, preparation, dissemination, solicitation, negotiation, entry into, or filing of, as applicable, the disclosure statement related to the Plan, the Plan (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Plan Supplement), the NewCo Transaction, the Orderly Wind Down (if applicable), or any restructuring transaction, contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document created or entered into in connection with the foregoing (including, for the avoidance of doubt, providing any legal opinion requested by any Entity regarding any transaction, contract, instrument, document, or other agreement contemplated by the Plan or the reliance by any released Party on the Plan or the Confirmation Order in lieu of such legal opinion), the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, the pursuit of Confirmation, the pursuit of Consummation, the administration and implementation of the Plan, or any other related agreement, or upon any other related act, or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence related or relating to any of the foregoing taking place on or before the entry of the Settlement Approval Order; provided that all Series B Preferred Shares shall remain outstanding until the occurrence of the Effective Date, upon which such Series B Preferred Shares shall be deemed discharged and extinguished in accordance with the terms of the Plan; provided, further, that the only rights any Series B Holders shall have to recover from the Debtors' estates on account of any Series B Preferred Shares are set forth in this Settlement Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above do not release any obligations arising under this Settlement Agreement or the Settlement Approval Order nor any rights or claims under any D&O Liability Insurance Policy as set forth in Section 12 herein. For the avoidance of doubt, this Settlement Agreement, and the obligations and releases hereunder, shall not impose any non-consensual releases on account holders to the extent such account holders file any personal, non-derivative claims.

12. Preservation of Insurance Rights. Notwithstanding the release in Section 11, Related Parties of the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders shall maintain any existing rights to pursue any D&O Liability Insurance Policy solely to the extent of any proceeds thereunder; provided that under no circumstances shall the Debtors' Estates be required to provide any additional consideration beyond the Settlement Funds to any Series B Preferred Holder or their Related Parties. The Estate Parties and their Related Parties reserve all rights with respect to the availability of insurance and retain the right to assert any defense, objection, or claim in opposition to any future claims of the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders and their Related Parties under the Debtors' Indemnification Provisions or D&O Liability Insurance Policy.

13. Fees & Expenses. No fees and expenses shall be due to the Series B Preferred Holders hereunder; provided that the Consenting Series B Preferred Holders may utilize Settlement Funds to satisfy fees and expenses, including as set forth in Section 4 hereof with respect to the Initial Consenting Series B Preferred Holders' fees and expenses.

14. Notice. All notices, demands, instructions, and other communications required or permitted under the Settlement Agreement to any Party (a "Notice") must be in writing, will be effective upon receipt, and must be delivered by hand delivery, overnight courier, or e-mail.

A Consenting Series B Preferred Holder shall not assign its interest in the Debtors to any party unless such party agrees in writing to be bound by the terms of this Settlement Agreement and such assignment is consented to in writing by the Estate Parties. Any purported assignment that does not comply with the foregoing sentence shall be void ab initio.

18. Non-Severability. Each of the terms of this Settlement Agreement is a material and integral part hereof. Therefore, any ambiguous language in this Settlement Agreement will not be construed against any particular Party as the drafter of such language.
